TATAVILLE MAKES GRAND OPENING

Defeats Waukegan, 5 to 2—Subscription List Growing to Back Norwich Team—Three Tryouts Released—More Players Coming—Academy Lost Hardluck Game to Fuley—Other Sports.

Tataville's baseball opening on Saturday afternoon went off with great success and Manager Mueller's men did the proper thing by slipping over a defeat to Waukegan, 5 to 2. All the incidentals were there to make the opening of their third season in the Eastern Connecticut baseball league an auspicious one.

The afternoon began with a parade of the two teams from the car station to the grounds, headed by the Tataville Cornet band and Agent John Eyles of the Ponemah company and party in an automobile. Arriving at the grounds the parade was conducted through the honor guard of the new grandstand by Managers Mueller and McBride before the players dispersed for practice. The stadium was packed with people and the field was surrounded by a big crowd.

When time to start the game arrived, Agent Eyles took position in the box from which he sent a "round-house" for the first strike on Raymond, Crocker.

Charlie Crocker was in splendid form up till then, holding the New London students to four scattered hits and one run. But an error by Captain Tommy Hendrick unsteadied him, two hits followed, errors by Catcher Ricketta and Second Baseman Fletcher completed the confusion, and a batter hit, a single, and two passes signed Crocker's death warrant. He was pulled from the slab and Champion, who succeeded him, hit the first man he pitched to, Cummings, who came to bat by putting a fast shoot up against Jay's jaw. Ricketta dropped and was out for several minutes but was revived with water and finished out the game, although with a badly damaged face.

PITCHER BILL BOUCHER,
Who Started Tataville Right Towards the Pennant.

Waukegan's first batter, For five innings it was one, two three order for both sides, both pitchers doing great work, but in the fifth Bill McClaflerty rapped out the single that scored the first run for Tataville after Boucher had been passed and stole second. Tataville made it two before the inning was out, and added another in the next session on Emerson's nice two-doubles and a single which won the game and gave Bill the decision over his rival.

Among the features of the hard-fourth game was Hooper's one-handed jumping act of a high liner and Emerson's timely stick work. The score: Tataville, 5; Waukegan, 0.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

SATURDAY MARKETS.
No Disturbance on Account of King Edward's Death.

New York, May 7.—10.10 a. m.—Busing orders of seeming urgency for some of the principal stocks were executed at the opening of the market.
There was no sign of disturbance on account of the death of the king of England.

—Close.—The market closed somewhat irregular and active. Extensive profit taking wiped out about all of the advance and forced some of the international stocks below yesterday's closing. Trading then became quieter, but there was a steady recovery, which carried prices to the highest. The decision to close the exchange at 11 o'clock, out of respect to the memory of King Edward, prompted the covering of shorts. There were some recessions in the final dealings.

WENT TO PIECES
IN THE NINTH.
Academy Loses to Bulkeley 9 to 2—Jay Ricketta Badly Hurt by Pitched Ball.

Eight runs tallied by Bulkeley in the ninth inning was the doleful tale brought back from New London by the Academy team on Saturday afternoon, resulting in a 9 to 2 victory for Bulkeley after the Academy had held them safely all through the game and had won the game by a 5 to 0 victory in the N. E. A. favor. An airship flight in the ninth by the Academy team did the whole business. It was the first league game won by Bulkeley this season.

Charlie Crocker was in splendid form up till then, holding the New London students to four scattered hits and one run. But an error by Captain Tommy Hendrick unsteadied him, two hits followed, errors by Catcher Ricketta and Second Baseman Fletcher completed the confusion, and a batter hit, a single, and two passes signed Crocker's death warrant. He was pulled from the slab and Champion, who succeeded him, hit the first man he pitched to, Cummings, who came to bat by putting a fast shoot up against Jay's jaw. Ricketta dropped and was out for several minutes but was revived with water and finished out the game, although with a badly damaged face.

Three Are Released.
Field Director Stone took preliminary steps towards picking out his squad on Saturday by handing the blue ticket to First Baseman Emerson, Second Outfielder Staples of White Rock and Storion of Baltic. Word was received from Catcher Ackerman that he would surely be here from New Bedford today. There is also a backstop coming who has been on a New England league team, and McGuire of Chester Falls has been wired to report at once. Lines are out for a good left handed pitcher.

Fast Practice at Sackham Park.
Two sessions of practice on Saturday, which were held at Sackham park, the men and boys showed activity and form, revealing much that was all to the good. Shaw, on third, strengthened the impression of his batting action, and his fielding was also shown made by his gingery work. Stick-made by the Bridgeport, showed that he is to be counted in the running to run in the field. Jack Casey was in his old reliable form at short, picking them up in pretty form. Liggins picked up in his hitting, driving a ball over the against the left field fence on one clout which the fans know is hitting some.
Dan Murphy and Deane McFarlane, two local boys, were right there with the out of town candidates, and Noonan and Rylander pulled off some fast work.

Hospital 9, Falls 7.
Hospital won again Saturday afternoon, defeating a team composed of Norwich Town and Falls players in a close and exciting game, 9 to 7. Both Simcox and Austin were hit freely, but What chances the pitchers had to work showed that they were coming around all right. Friedman, McRoberts, Gallivan and Keach forming a battery that will shape up with the best of them. There will be more and afternoon practice sessions today under the eye of Field Director Stone.

Murphy Gets Left Hander.
New Haven pitcher named Loveland on Saturday. He is a left hander and is said to be well worth a trial.

WILLMANTIC SQUAD REPORTS
FOR FIRST PRACTICE TODAY.
Big List to Select From—Hunting Bob O'Connell Has Grounds Ready for Business.

(Special to The Bulletin.) Willmantic, May 8.—The only thing that is worrying President Dunn and Bob O'Connell of the Willmantic baseball nine of the Connecticut baseball association at the present time is the weather. If the same old drizzle of late May continues, the prospects of a fine and warm day that will be comfortable for the bleachers and the
and afternoon practice sessions today
under the eye of Field Director Stone.

Protested Jack Gallivan.
Jack Gallivan appeared at Western Saturday to pitch for White Rock in the opening game of the Rhode Island-Connecticut league, but was protested by the Western manager on the grounds that Jack was on the roster of three teams in the league. The other pitcher, and Western won the game.

Hits Bunched Off Graham Wins for Tigers.
Detroit, May 8.—Detroit won a rather featureless game from the Athletics by hitting him off Graham in the second inning. Score: Detroit, 5; Athletics, 0.

Willard 2b, Wunderlich 3b, Eribeck ss, Meyer 1b, Krauss of, Hedler rf.
The Tataville Tigers won from Occum at Ocean, Saturday, 7 to 4. The batteries were: For the winners, Doyle and Decelle; for the losers, Palmer and Canille. The Tigers are anxious for a game with the Hawks.
St. Mary's parochial school defeated the Seaboard Saturday morning by a 10 to 4 score. Young and Saunders were an invincible battery. Murphy and Gudowski worked for the other team.
The school nine won from the Young Sparrows in the afternoon.
Manager Noel Dufresne of the Tataville Cadets is still anxiously hunting for games, teams averaging 17 being most for him. He expects a game with the Academy Independents before long, and next Sunday will play the Baltic Tigers at Baltic.

Navy Oarsmen Defeat Columbia.
In a two-mile race at Annapolis on Saturday, the naval academy eight defeated the Columbia oarsmen. The time was 19 minutes 42 1/2 seconds, not the best time which had been made
